The carnival given on the evening of June 24 by the Arcadia Ladies' Aid proved to be a decided success financially and otherwise. A large crowd was in attendance and were systematically separated from their pennies, nickels and dimes, by fortune tellers, sellers of taffy, popcorn ice cream, etc. A beauty parlor also did a thriving business. A fancy-work exhibit that would have made a creditable showing anywhere was also in evidence and a vaudeville program that brought forth much applause. Twenty-five dollars was realized from the affair.

Doing Our Part

No Goods Charged

No White Oxfords or Pumps Included in This Sale

Starting Saturday, July 3 and Ending Saturday July 17

We will place on sale every Oxford, Pump or Low Shoe in our store, not an old style in the lot, but all bright, new, up-to-the-minute this season's footwear at prices almost unbelievable because of their cheapness.

Our store is now doing the greatest business it has ever known. In the face of unseasonable weather and difficulties of obtaining merchandise, we have chalked up wonderful selling records. This has been achieved by carrying great and finely assorted stocks of footwear and selling at as small a profit as safety will permit.

But we have watched the hectic efforts of merchants far and near to stimulate business by the drastic slashing of prices, we, with Alma's greatest stock of shoes, cannot sit idly by.

Therefore we give to you these wonderful savings on low cuts right at the beginning of the summer season.
